Foreword

Our school years play an important part in the drama of our lives. Shakespeare once said, ". . . All the world is a stage, and all the men and women merely players . . ."

The past twelve years have formed a comparatively small scene in this great universal dramatization; but, through constant work with the members of the cast, lasting friendships have been made.

Many exciting, drab, happy, and sad moments have been remembered as hit songs in a popular musical. However, as tired and faded costumes are stored in a trunk following a hit production, many of these episodes will be tucked away in our minds and forgotten.

The finale need not come when the curtain falls, portraying the end of this scene, for our friendships and experiences will live on.

We hope many of these happenings may be recalled through this book in years to come.

TO THE CLASS OF 1953:

It is said that President Conant of Harvard University has behind his desk a picture of a turtle. Under the picture is the caption, "To get ahead, the turtle must stick his neck out." There is a whole philosophy of life in this picture and its caption. The successful person is he who is willing to undertake new responsibilities, who is willing to champion causes, and, in order to go forward, will risk his security for an ideal. The entire history of human progress is made up of people who believed in something and were willing to strive forward toward their goal.

As you leave Hatfield High School my best advice to you is to be like the turtle who wants to get ahead—stick your necks out! Be "for" something and work mightily for it. Accept a challenge of some kind and give it everything you have. Progress, your own and the world's, depends upon your willingness to do this. In the words of Plato, "Let each of us seek to learn and discern between good and evil, so as to choose everywhere the better life . . . follow after justice and virtue always . . . thus shall we live dear to one another and to the gods, both here and when we receive our reward."

My very best wishes to you.

I. NEWTON COWAN

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1953:

You have my sincere good wishes and, I am sure, those of the faculty as your career in the Hatfield High School closes and you go out to find your place in the world of adults.

The things you have accomplished at Hatfield High School will remind others that you were here; this yearbook should serve to epitomize those accomplishments and recall memories of your association with those who helped you attain your goals. May you attain success in each worthy endeavor and when the road is weary and rough may these few words give you the courage and strength to persevere.

If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think you dare not, you don't,
If you'd like to win, but you think you can't,
It is almost certain you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost
For out of the world we find,
Success begins with a fellow's will—
It's all in the state of the mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are,
You've got to think high to rise,
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

"Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the man WHO THINKS HE CAN!"

Laura M. Trexler

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1953:

It has been written that there are ten marks of an educated man.

- (1) He keeps his mind open on every question until all the evidence is in.
- (2) He always listens to the man who knows.
- (3) He never laughs at new ideas.
- (4) He cross examines his day dreams.
- (5) He knows his strong point and plays it.
- (6) He knows the value of good habits and how to form them.
- (7) He knows when not to think and when to call in the expert to think for him.
- (8) You can't sell him magic.
- (9) He lives the forward-looking, outward-looking life.
- (10) He cultivates a love for the beautiful.

Keeping the above in mind, regardless of whether you as individuals plunge into the business of making your "niche" in the world or continuing in the field of higher education, we on the board of education wish you God-speed in the achievement of your aims and aspirations.

Secretaries

Left to Right: Mrs. Kathleen Toska, Mrs. Aida Garrahan, Miss Helen Glueck.

Miss Helen Glueck, a recent graduate of Hatfield High school, has assumed her duties as an efficient and cheerful secretary. Her job covers the usual secretarial duties. She also types the copy for the Orange and Black and Hatter, and does other tasks for teachers and pupils.

Mrs. Aida Garrahan performs the duties of secretary to the joint school board. She takes care of the correspondence and makes out bills.

Another new secretary this year is Mrs. Kathleen Toska, who undertakes the distribution of announcement sheets and collection of daily attendance forms, permission and admission slips.

Left to Right: Mrs. Irving Schlosser, Mr. David Lewis, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Richard Felton.

Under the new direction of Mr. David Lewis the Parent-teacher Association has set another goal of bettering our school and helping the pupils. The major undertaking this year is buying new drapes for the school auditorium. To attain this goal they have staged card parties, sold Christmas candles, had cakes sales, and are planning a street fair, which is expected to help a great deal in the raising of the money. Buying glasses for children of families who cannot afford them was another project of the P.T.A.

The group's theme for the year was "building firm foundations for our children."

The total membership was 406.

Parent-Teacher Association

Bus Drivers

Every morning at seven thirty Mr. Claude Lick, Mr. Willis Moyer, and Mr. Charlie Keeley leave Delp's bus station to pick up the pupils in Hatfield Township. These three buses make three trips daily besides the trips they make for the first and second grades.

This year we have also been fortunate in having a bus to transport those who participate in sports after school. Transportation to all away games has been supplied by our able bus drivers.

Many thanks for the courtesy and safety given by the bus drivers and Mr. Delp.

Left to Right: Mr. Charles Illingsworth, Mr. Claude Lick.

Many times we do not appreciate the wonderful job that our janitors, Mr. Pete Schraut and Mr. Elmer Ruppert, are doing. Pete is serving his thirtieth year here while Mr. Ruppert is serving his first full year.

Sweeping the floors, keeping school grounds clean, and taking care of the furnace are some of the many odd jobs these men do.

There has been an addition to the boiler room in the form of new oil burners. This has helped to lighten the burden for our willing workers.

Left to Right: Mr. Pete Schraut, Mr. Elmer Ruppert.

Custodians

Serving her second year with us is Miss Margaret Shaw, our efficient nurse.

This year Miss Shaw aided Doctor Albert Schafenacker in giving physical examinations to grades one, three, five, seven, nine, and eleven. There were also dental examinations given by Doctor Edward Swartley. Hearing tests with the use of the audiometer were conducted; and 150 people were x-rayed for tuberculosis, including pupils, teachers, and parents. Home visits were taken to follow up the correction of defects. A record of height and weights were also kept.

With all her duties Miss Shaw found time to be Junior Red Cross Club advisor. Thanks a million, Miss Shaw, for a job well done.

Miss Margaret Shaw

Medical Department

Cafeteria Staff

“What’s on the platter today?” This question is asked when lunch comes. Lunch, of course, to some people is the best period of the day.

Everybody likes good food; that is the reason the cooks like to give us the best food, prepared with the finest flavor. The following people are on the staff: Head cook, Mrs. Victoria Kober, who is assisted by Mrs. Marie Miller, Mrs. Helen Benner, Mrs. Pearl Schlosser, Mrs. Elmira Henning, Mrs. Mabel Stott, and Mrs. Sara Price. Mrs. Clemens works Monday, Tuesday, and Friday; she alternates with Mrs. Hannah Stoneback, who works Wednesday and Thursday.

Among the students’ favorite dishes are cheeseburgers, hamburg barbecue, and meat loaf.

PROLOGUE.

*All the world's a stage.
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances:
And one man in his time plays many parts . . .*

William Shakespeare

Act I

"Why have you been late again? Not so much crowding back there in that corner. How did you get that black eye, Fred?"

"Everybody quiet, please? Get your books. Now let's try this page once more." And so it went, day after day, in our nine year rehearsal period for life's school play. Then came the big day when our elementary directors informed the higher-ups that our class was ready for the next act called senior high.

Act II, SCENE I.

The curtain ascended in Room 23 with Mr. Thomas Chilcote sitting at his desk. After everyone had taken his seat, class officers were elected.

Naturally the stage was in an up-roar when it was time to choose between the standard and more expensive onyx ring. Finally, everything was quiet once more only to be interrupted by a very wonderful hayride which everyone enjoyed.

"Don't forget the 'April Showers'". Yes, it was time for the Sophomore dance and what a successful way to end the first scene.

Act II, SCENE II.

"Class dues-everybody has to pay them." That was the first line and a continuous one. Newspapers, Easter eggs, pies, and cakes were sold to boost the play's finances.

Mr. Gerald Kriebel was surely having trouble, but a lot of fun, being our head director. Class officers were elected and try-outs for "Little Women" were already passed. The scene was then perked-up when Joan Landis and Leon Constanzer were selected for District Chorus. This scene ended excitingly with a marvelous May Dance.

Act II, SCENE III.

The third scene opened again in Mr. Gerald Kriebel's room. After class officers were elected, a magazine campaign was staged; this really boosted the treasury. Then everybody was thrilled when several members of the class were chosen for District Chorus.

Finally our dream came true when we went to Washington. No one will ever forget those wonderful three days.

The scene neared its end with baccalaureate, class night, and last, but not least, commencement. The final event of ACT II was the very glamourous Senior Prom. At the end everybody was saying "good-bye" to the most wonderful act of his life.

The curtain now descends to rise ere long upon a larger scene.

*The present is our own; but while we speak
We cease from its possession, and resign
The stage we tread on to another race,
As vain and gay and mortal as ourselves.*

Thomas Love Peacock

Act III.

Act III may be a tempest or an experience of happy accomplishment. One thing is certain. The theater is crowded; the actors wait to say their lines with lively expectation; the call boys are approaching and the play is on.

Journey to Washington

With strains of Goodbye, Seniors floating on the clear morning air, the Class of '53, surrounded by patient parents, smiling sweethearts, and jesting juniors, boarded the train at Lansdale Reading Railroad Station, bound for Washington, D.C.

"Have fun, Goodbye Charlie, and say hello to Ike" were some of the shouts heard as the train pulled out at 7:16 A.M. and the underclassmen left the depot to return home in their gaily decorated cars.

On the train the junior presents were opened; out came rattles, water pistols, toy horns, and many other amusing objects. At 7:45 the train got into Wayne Junction where the girls parted with their heels and the class plus the advisors ascended the special Baltimore and Ohio car. Breakfast was served here with everyone striving to accomplish the feat of making his mouth and coffee meet at just the right jerk of the train.

Arriving at the Mount Royal Station, Baltimore, the group detrained and mounted a chartered motor coach which stuck with us for the remainder of the Washington tour.

First stop — the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis! What a sight to watch the cadets march carefully, Side by Side, from one class to another. It reminded us of our school back home!! Since it was High Noon when this first spot had been toured, the class went to historic Carvel Hall Hotel for luncheon. With full stomachs, we proceeded to Mount Vernon and then on to the Plaza Hotel, our three-day living quarters, where our supper was served. That evening seats were reserved at the Loews Capital Theatre to assure us of seeing the movie Sombrero followed by a floor show.

There were stars in everyone's eyes upon arriving back at the hotel, but Sleep did not come quickly. The house dick was kept busy by alarm clocks, gab fests, and water throwing, among other activities. There were no Down Hearted tourists the next morning despite the lack of sleep, as the bus started on its journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing where folks were seen making money, fast and furiously. The F.B.I. building proved to be interesting and exciting.

"Everyone always walks up to the top on the first visit," were Mr. Cowan's famous words uttered as we neared the towering Washington Monument. "Whew" is about all we had to say for that stop. At reaching the top our spirits were elevated when we felt as though we were Sitting on Top of the World. The Corcoran Art Gallery and the breath-taking White House were the next stops.

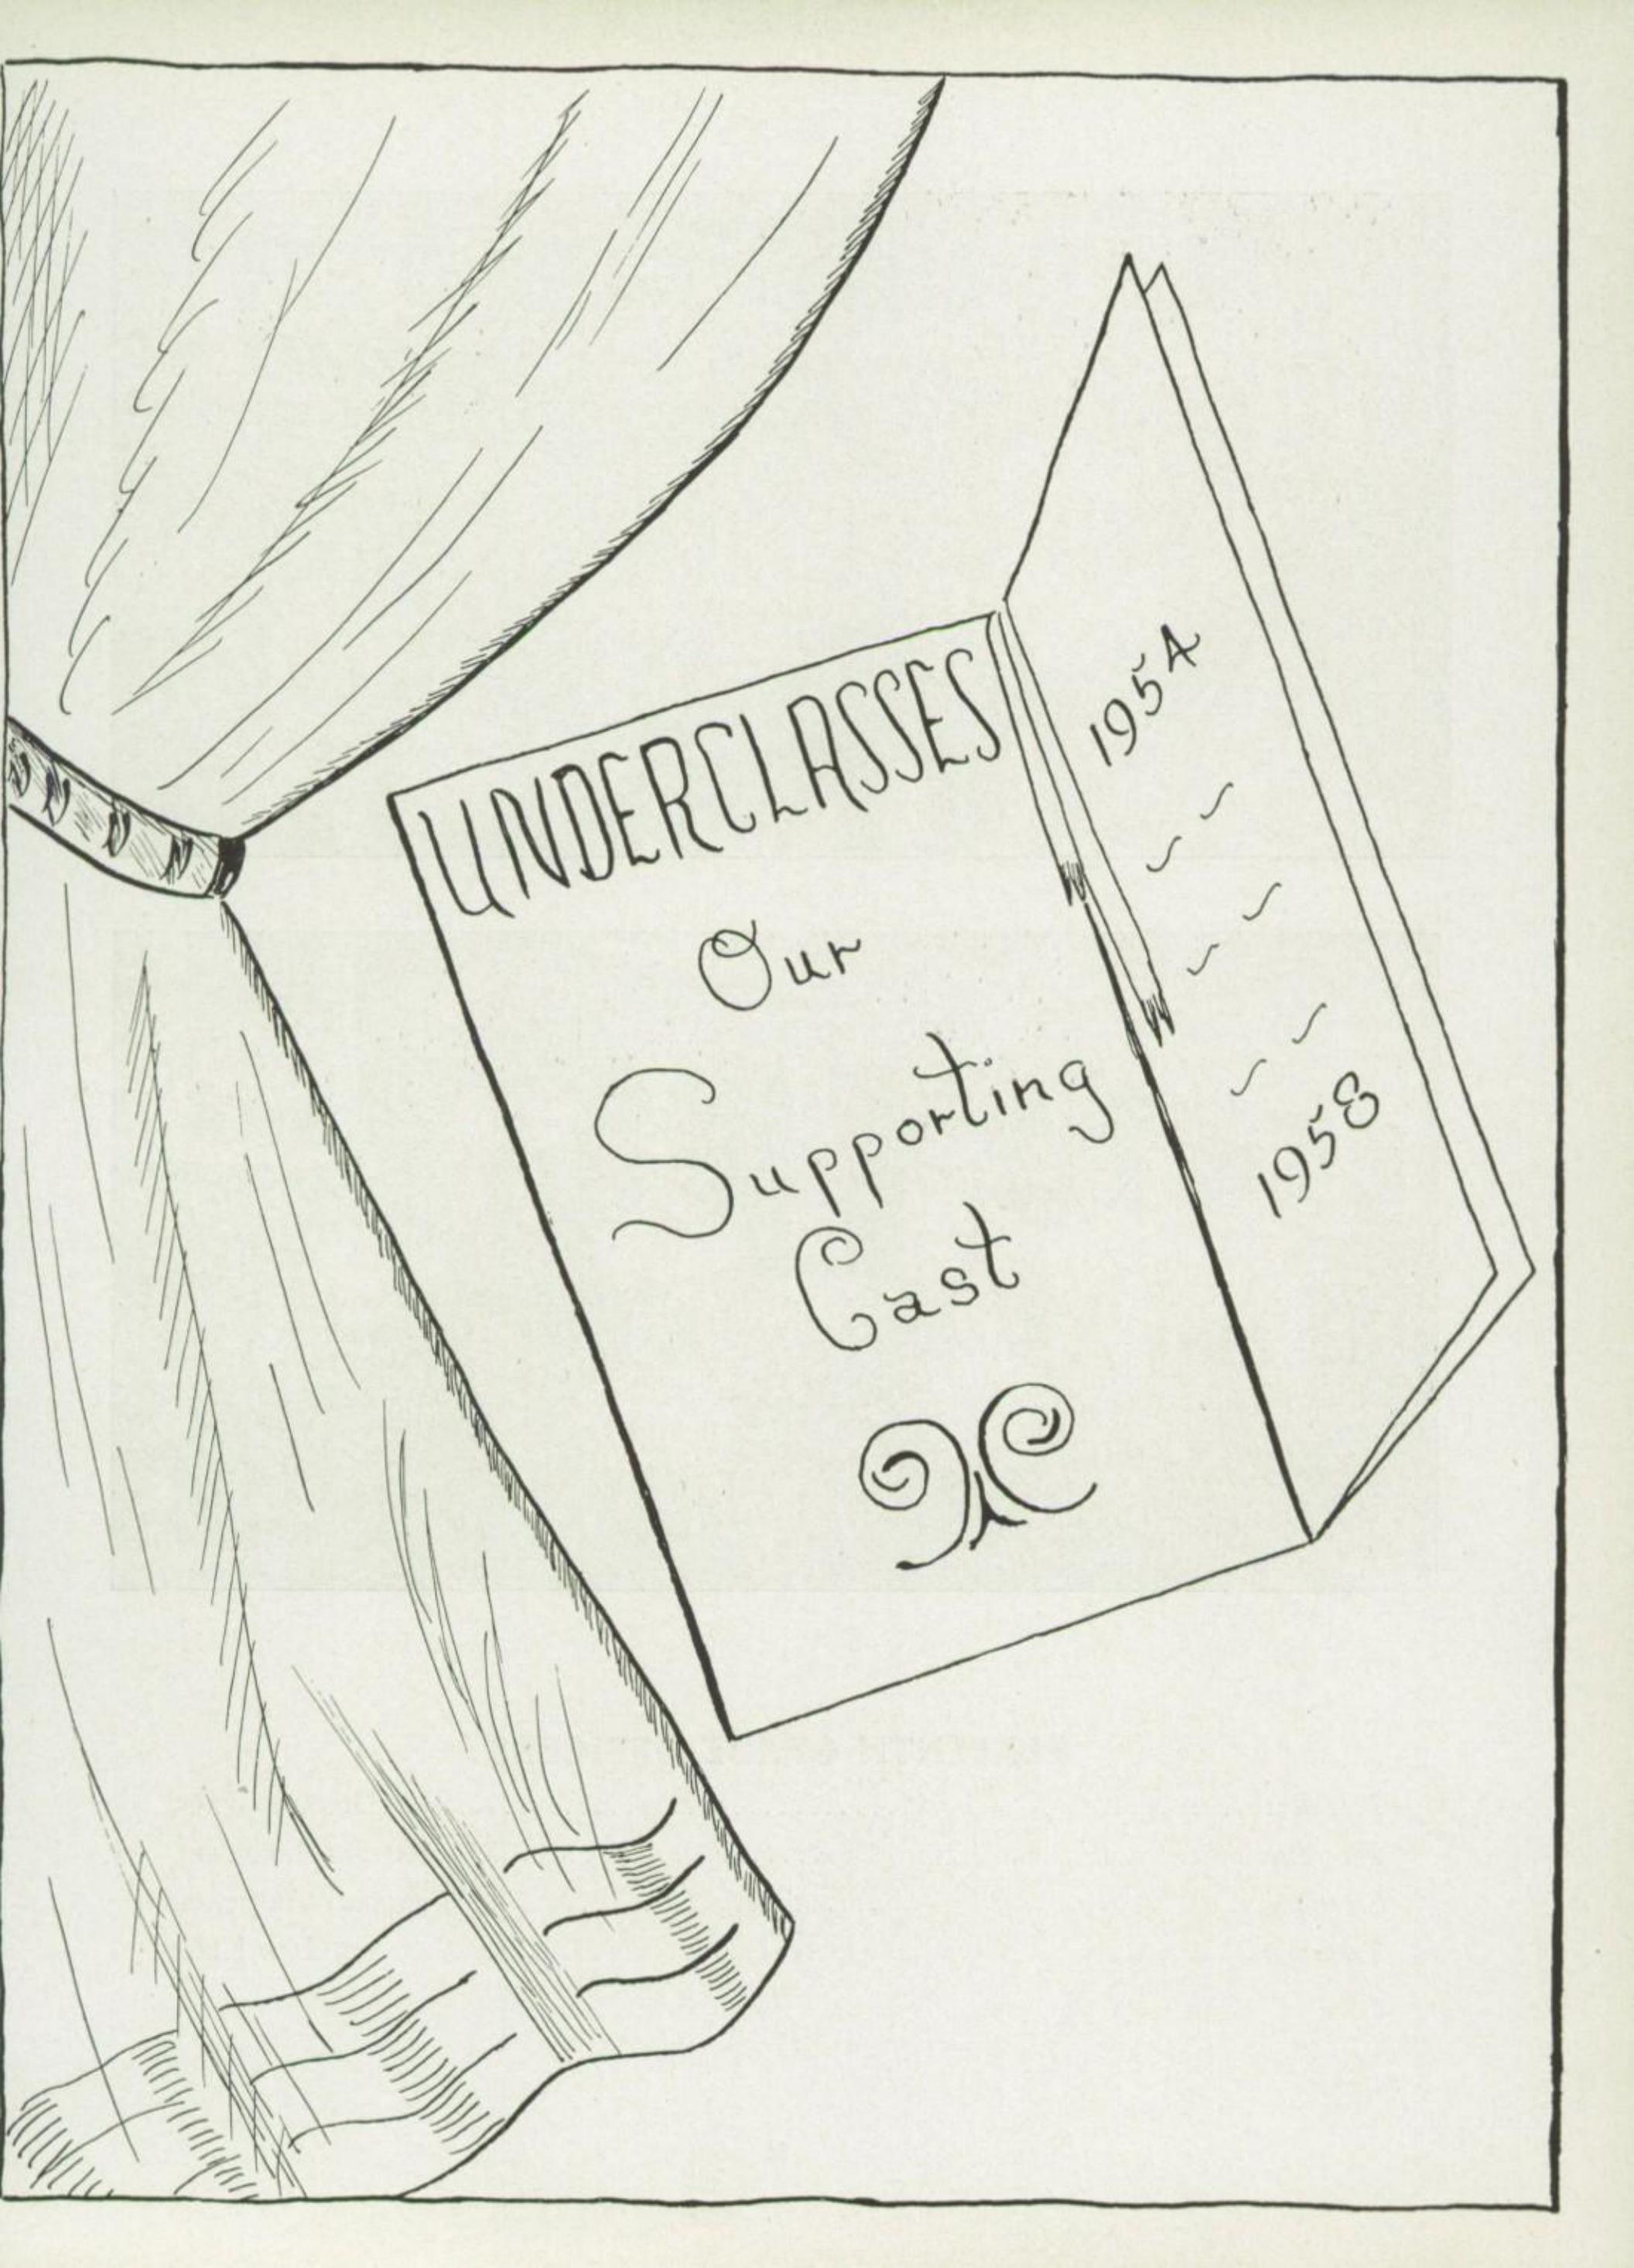

After lunch at the Plaza guided tours were made to Rock Creek Park and the zoo, Arlington Cemetery and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the impressive Lincoln Memorial. Dinner was served at six o'clock and the evening was filled by a visit to the Congressional Library and Glen Echo Amusement Park.

Saturday dawned clear and beautiful, and the final day was begun by breakfast. Stops were then made at the National Gallery of Art, Freer Art Gallery, the Jefferson Memorial, Old National Museum, New National Museum, and the Smithsonian Institute.

Following lunch, the class toured the Capitol building, where the group picture was taken, and the Washington Cathedral. We then proceeded to the Union Station to start homeward, bidding goodbye to Ray the bus driver, and the fair Capital City. A delicious dinner was eaten on the train by soaked seniors, who rushed to the dining car like a Pack of Wild Horses.

At Wayne Junction, the class once more boarded the Reading car and pulled into Lansdale at nine o'clock P.M. The bedraggled seniors happily descended the train steps confident that the junior class would feel, as they, that a trip such as This is Heaven.

“Just think, one more year and we'll be seniors!”

“What a goal to work for in our Junior year!”

To get started, this hard working class began with selling emblems. Following this they acquired books to sell called School Days. Collecting papers was another item on the money making list.

To satisfy their class—mater and friend, sweet tooth, they took on the annual project of selling Easter Eggs. This provided much needed money for their senior activities and their long anticipated Washington Trip.

Miss Beatrice J. Heiges, their class advisor, sat in on each class meeting helping when help was needed.

Along in the sports field, the Juniors participated in such activities as hockey, soccer, basketball, and baseball.

Another phase of their 11th year was entertainment. Many Juniors participated in the Junior-Senior play, “Cheaper By The Dozen.”

A well earned trip to New York on Durrel Delp's bus was planned for April 18.

Lorraine Kriebel was the new addition to the Junior Class this year.

Fourth Row: Terry Kramer, Frank Javorka, Eleanor Bucci, Jon Marx, Arnold Kappen, Ralph Goodison, Glenn Clausen, David Kratz, Robert Bishop, Nancy Eckert.

Finally the great thrill of being in senior high school came to this lively group in September, as they went to room C-3 under Mr. Chilcote's guidance and to the shop with Mr. Potts in charge.

After quieting down, the group elected the class officers.

The first line of business was the ordering of the class rings. With a lot of bickering over which was the better, the gold or the onyx, decisions were made and orders placed.

After receiving them at Christmas, they felt more secure and walked around with hands outstretched, displaying the rings.

Sports and Harmonaires seemed to occupy most of the time of these hustling youngsters.

The group sold every day cards in order to start building the treasury for the Washington trip in two years.

Selling candy at the athletic contest was another financial venture.

With their annual Sophomore spring dance on April 10, this group appeared to be on their way to bigger heights in the years to come.

Ninth grade was divided into two sections under the leadership of Miss Mildred Lawrence and Mr. Calvin Ruth. Class meetings were held every other week in the auditorium.

Their social activities included a hayride. Acting as chaperons were Miss Heiges and Mr. West. An evening of thrills and spills was also had at Moonlight Gardens Skating Rink. Mr. Zeurcher and Miss Lawrence chaperoned this event. Sports, too, played an important part in their busy schedule.

There were two new editions to their class; Sylvia Wilson formerly came from North Wales and Larry Washco came from Lansdale.

Dues of thirty-five cents were collected every month from each student.

The advisors of the eighth grade were Miss Anna Angeny, who resides in room 25, and Miss Dorothy Kennally, who had her homeroom in the cottage.

At Halloween a party was held by the eighth grade as one of their social events. At Christmas time a class party was held at which the students exchanged gifts with one another.

The junior high soccer team, which won the championship, was supported by many of the boys. They also participated in junior high basketball and baseball. Many of the girls played on the junior high hockey and basketball teams.

This is the second year for these students in junior high school; one year remains before they enter senior high school.

As the end of the school term rolled around one heard questions such as these:

"Do you think the academic course will be hard?"

"What course are you taking next year?"

"I wonder whether Latin is hard!"

Grade 7-1 ranked among the highest contributors to the March of Dimes campaign and in the parental membership of the P.T.A.

Following the regular homeroom meeting in this section, there were many lively debates, quizzes, and films, both educational and recreational.

Upon entering the room, C-3, preceding the yuletide season, one could see gay Christmas paintings and pictures. To add to the festive occasion the group had their annual holiday party.

The air was filled with excitement again as envelopes were distributed on Valentine's Day.

Climaxing the year's activities was the seventh grade class trip to Willow Grove Amusement Park during the week of final exams.

The 7-2 half of the high school new-comers was kept busy with activities such as the monthly homeroom business meetings. After each session, the program committee supplied entertainment in the form of spelling bees, humorous movies, discussions, cherades, "Twenty questions" programs, and short plays.

At Christmas time, pals were chosen and gifts were exchanged between them.

The bulletin board committee, plus various other class members, kept the homeroom, C-1, interesting and attractive with pictures, drawings, short stories, and news articles, which were posted.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The first meeting of the Student Council was called to order by the President, Bill Rheiner, on September 12, 1953. After that, meetings were held every Thursday at 8:15 A.M.

The first venture was a tri-council dance. The net gross on this dance was $50. The next event in which they participated was the model presidential election in which they furnished the judges.

The Student Council provided us with a juke box and a pencil machine which were placed in the cafeteria. They made money by checking coats at various evening activities. They gave the articles in the lost and found department to the relief. They also sold plastic tablecloths.

Among the duties of the Student Council was the selection of the films which we enjoyed during the year.

The group held a tri-council dance at our school on March 28. Dances after basketball games were sponsored by Student Council. Money was contributed to a baby sponsorship to cloth children.

Vandalism was one of the various evils that the Council tried to overcome. Their attempts to raise money were a success and their piggy banks were fattened. Considering the many obstacles which they encountered during the year the Student Council was successful.

LIBRARY CLUB

The purpose of the Library Club was to familiarize pupils with books and the school library.

The students puts into practice what they learned during Library Club. Several club members assisted Miss King before and after school by stamping and signing out books.

READING CLUB

The purpose of the Reading Club was to stimulate reading. Each person brought his own book and read silently throughout the period.

During the first half of the term some of the students covered about four books.

There were 10 members in the club.

Left to Right, First Row: Miss Mildred Lawrence, Ralph Clayton, Blanche Cobb, Robert Green.
Second Row: Joseph Kernen, Betty Haines, Lois Wolf, Lorraine Kriebel, Maureen Kramer, Donald Hedrick.

THE HATTER

Everyone started to solicit for patrons as soon as the word "yearbook" was mentioned. At the same time the Hatter cover was selected by the senior class along with the motto, colors, and flower.

The senior formals were taken and delivered before Christmas and most of the group pictures were also completed. Simon Manson and Stewart Fretz were very busy during the entire year taking snapshots.

The production of a play as the theme was carried out in the form of a cover, divider pages, heads and copy.

A dungaree hop was staged as a means of earning money for the Hatter fund.

The 1952 Hatter placed third in the Pennsylvania School Press Association and second in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

ORANGE AND BLACK

"Meet your deadline!" These few, but meaningful words could well be the slogan for the ever faithful Orange and Black staff, (Especially the advisor.)

Issued every month the Orange and Black told of our many activities, special occasions, and the humorous side of our school life.

To keep this newspaper business rolling the staff started by emphasizing the necessity of ordering the Orange and Black. Besides this they sold sweatshirts and candy canes.

For their activity some of the staff visited the Inquirer Building to learn how a large newspaper is edited. The School Press Convention at Drexel Institute of Technology also was attended.

Laura Ziegler and Dolores Krupp, editor and co-editor respectively, attended a weekend press conference. This was the Pennsylvania School Press Association at Altoona.

The Orange and Black entered the Temple Press Tournament and the P.S.P.A. in which the paper won first prize.

There were many hurdles for our paper to clear but with the help of its capable leader, Mrs. Mabel Beeman, the Orange and Black was a success.

In the end of February, the newly selected staff members assumed their duties.

THE CURRENT AFFAIRS CLUB

Current Affairs Club was composed of seventeen members. The purpose of the club was to discuss the main interests during the week. Occasionally reports were given on questions that arise and debating was held. Sources of information were newspapers and digests.

Some of the main issues discussed were the election, of course, Korean situation, inauguration, budget and taxes, the President's Cabinet and the courses of action that the new administration would take. Sports, too, held a big interest in Current Affairs Club.

THE LANGUAGE CLUB

This Latin and French club consisted of students who were interested in trying to develop a better appreciation for languages. They also discussed the life and ways of the people.

Meeting once a week, they did extra things they wouldn't ordinarily have done in a class period. The most interesting, everyone agreed, was playing games in these languages.

The Film Critics Club met every Tuesday. These people watched the films very closely to find any flaws. After this they discussed them and tried to find improvements on the bad points.

The following films are a few that were discussed. "Mr. Bell", his life work and the invention of the telephone; "America, The Beautiful", a picture of the beautiful resources we have in America; "Energy In Our Business", the development of the electric industry; "Evangeline Land", life in Louisiana lowland in colonial and present times; "The Prince of Freedom", the loss of freedom by disunity and misunderstanding; "Survival Under Atomic Attacks", instructions for an atomic attacks—if at home, at work, out of doors, walking or driving a car; "The Telephone Hour", one of the Telephone Hour radio broadcasts.

SENIOR ART CLUB

Exchanging ideas and discussing different art work occupied the time of these paint and color minded boys. With Mr. Calvin Ruth as faculty advisor, they worked in pastels, oil and finger painting, and portrait sketching.

Since doing this sort of work, the boys have a wider knowledge of color and culture.

In the beginning of the school term the boys devoted their time to sketching scenes which were visible from the school grounds. The cold weather forced them to return to the classroom where they became familiar with the use of charcoal, tempera paints, crayons, and watercolors. Many of the products of the sessions were admired by the students who visited room 5.

JUNIOR ART CLUB

“Don’t use too much paint!” “May I borrow some crayons?” With these and many other remarks, the junior high boys’ and girls’ art club, under the direction of Mr. Calvin Ruth, got under way.

These young artists were permitted to do as they wished. Some of the work done was finger painting, scenes in pastels, compositions of birds and animals, and costume designing.

The boys and girls were also very creative in their pieces of art. Life on Mars became a very interesting subject on which to let one’s imagination run wild.

Valentines were made during the month of February and displayed on the classroom wall.

The last project of the group was weaving. It was desired that more work in the field of handcraft be done; however, the facilities did not permit this to be done.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Business meeting, entertainment, then refreshments composed the monthly meeting of the Future Homemakers of America organization.

The seventy members met for regular business sessions every other Thursday afternoon and the second Monday evening of each month; at this meeting the group also had a social time.

A bus, chartered from Mr. Durrel Delp, was filled by the club for the annual Farm Show at Harrisburg, January 15.

One of the year's highlights was the formal dance, "Christmas Rhythm," sponsored by both the Future Homemakers and the Future Farmers. This took place in the gymnasium, December 13.

An Easter package was made up and sent to a needy family.

Another service performed by the club was the preparing and serving of a dinner to the Bux-Mont Forum Club, in the school cafeteria. The girls were also waitresses at the Chamber of Commerce turkey dinner in October at the Hatfield firehouse.

Gail Keck, State President, and several other delegates represented the Hatfield Chapter at the State Convention of the Future Homemakers in Harrisburg on April 10 and 11.

As president of the state organization, Gail assumed many responsibilities, including her speaking at the Drexel Institute of Technology, the Pennsylvania State College, and the meetings of the four regional groups; she also presided at the state session held at the Farm Show.

The officers of the Future Farmers of America were elected in the summer of 1952 before the new term started.

The boys added ten dollars to their treasury through participation in the annual Halloween Parade in Hatfield.

The club again attended the State Farm Show in Harrisburg in January.

It was voted that a project of raising one hundred chickens would be carried on. These chicks will be entered in a contest called "Chicken of Tomorrow". Bruce Harris will raise these to represent the club. The best fifteen will be chosen.

The group held a discussion of cleaning up the school property. The members also sold the Farm Journal for a small profit.

Plans for a party with the F.H.A. girls in April or May were made. The group also planned to have a truck patch and wholesale the products. All these things made the year a great success.

FORUM CLUB

Left to Right, Seated: Bill Rheiner, Janice Ruth, Robert Hoelscher.
Standing: Fred Laws, Alfred Shanks, Simon Manson, Reid Fretz, Donald Wack, James Kriebel, Mr. Gerald Kriebel.

The Forum Club attended a get-together party at Spring Lake as their first meeting. During the year they attended various forum debates at many local schools.

The club entertained the local forum chapters here at Hatfield early in the fall. Janice Ruth represented Hatfield successfully at this meeting. The next meeting was held at Conshohocken on November 12 at which time the topic was "Do our Presidential Campaigns Really Produce a More Informed Electorate?" A meal was served immediately after the debates as a get-acquainted period.

"Should We Have a Federal F.E.P.C. Law?" was the next forum topic which was discussed at Upper Moreland High School on January 6th. Many of these programs were broadcast on radio by KYW and WIBG. The function of the club was to enrich the speaking qualities of its members and to give them experience in public speaking.

SENIOR HIGH PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Senior High Photography Club, which met every Tuesday, was made up of grades ten, eleven, and twelve.

The students were taught how to take snapshots out of doors and flash pictures indoors. Some of them also took portraits of some of the members in the club.

They also learned how to develop the films they had taken. Enlargements were made on many of the pictures that were taken.

JUNIOR HIGH PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Junior High Photography club met every Thursday.

Among the numerous activities of the club, the most outstanding was taking pictures. They took some outside pictures, some pictures of the assembly programs and several portraits.

The students also developed films and did some enlarging.

Judy Emmerick, one of the members of the club was responsible for some of the snaps in this issue of the Hatter.

The annual Junior-Senior Play was given November 20 and 22.

This hilarious comedy had father, who was trying to save time and waste motion, get in the most unusual circumstances. When Anne came home with short underthings and silk stockings, the whole family was horrified and father refused to let her go out. Only Ernestine, Martha and Mother seemed to understand her trouble.

Then when Joe Scales came to take Anne out and acted so rude, all talk of dates was ended.

Father also thought his children should have an education. When Miss Brill gave Anne the college exam in which cheating took place, father again was angry.

Larry seemed to change the whole family, even though the girls gave him a little trouble with his motorcycle.

After a retest was given to Anne, who had a date for the Junior Prom with Larry, Dad left for Europe to speak at a conference.

DRIVER TRAINING

"Let's go kids!" An excited high school student slid under the wheel of the training car and a new adventure began!

This year thirty-six driver training students completed the full course of learning to drive. However, sixty-two students had signed up for the course.

A pretty blue, 1952 dual-controlled Chevrolet was supplied to the class by Hedrick Brothers in Telford.

As part of the driver training course, a class session was held for the eleventh grade; in this class they learned driving rules and information from a book called Sportsman-Like Driving.

After eight hours of required driving, Mr. Chilcote, the advisor, took each student to Norristown, where he took his state driver's test and became a full fledged, licensed driver.

Mr. Chilcote also sponsored some assemblies for instructions on safe driving through safety films and short talks from Marty Keegan, a state policeman.

Through Mr. Chilcote and his training car, an important goal was set and attained this year—safe driving.

MODEL AIRPLANE CLUB

Kneeling: Richard Gross, Donald Kratz, Barry Schaffer, Carl Bayha, Robert Mascaro, Walter Diehl, Horace Gordon, Alfred Walter, Mardean Hall, Edward Beidler, Henry Johannes, James Humphrey, John Gallie, Lee Metz.

Standing: Lowell Moyer, Mr. Stanley Golazeski, James Danenhower, Wallace Derstine, Joseph Fretz, Robert Snyder, Samuel Gerhart, Donald Appel, Raymond Stock, Fritz Syben, Richard Lentz, Kenneth Schussler, James Freund, Lynn Grafton, Donald Stevens, Donald Hoffman, Charles Kern.

The Model Airplane club consisted of twenty-eight high minded boys from the seventh and eighth grades.

Each student was permitted to make any model airplane or ship in which he was interested; old models were also repaired during this time. On several occasions movies concerning model airplanes were shown.

Later in the spring the students flew their models on the school grounds. There was a great spirit of competition as each boy was convinced that his plane must fly better than the others.

Several plans and ships were on display in Mr. Golazeski's homeroom. Some models of the late jet type aircraft were included in this group.

PROJECTIONIST CLUB

Left to Right, Sitting: Jane Daly, Patsy DeCarme, Richard Stover, Gail Sloan, Joan Flack, Stanley Jones.

Standing: Clara Haines, Loretta Fifield, Richard Schwartz, Shirley Constanzer, Marjorie Rohr, John Stiver, Phyllis Frankenfield, Margaret Armitage, Lloy Hilgner, Jon Marx, Jimmy Kriebel, Glenn Claussen, Mr. Clavin Potts, Nolan Michener, Robert Bishop, Ralph Schwartz, Robert Green, Jackie Schwartz.

The Projectionist club met once a week under the supervision of Mr. Calvin Potts. The main purpose of the club was to learn how to operate and take care of the visual aids equipment. Another purpose was to teach the current operation of the visual aids machines for class room instructions. The pupils also showed films in assemblies and were taught how to repair them in case of damage.

The following equipment is found at the school—Bell & Howell 16 mm. motion picture machine. The Vocation Department has an R.C.A. 16 mm. sound motion picture machine, an Opaque projector, and a Tri-film strip machine. The Bell & Howell 16 mm. sound motion picture was supplied by the P.T.A., Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce and the Legion, and was given to be used at the school and by all local organizations under the supervision of Mr. Potts.

SENIOR GIRLS' SHOP CLUB

Nine of the senior high girls were helped greatly by the Shop Club this year. Mr. Ronald Richards, the advisor, explained and demonstrated many ways of decorating a home with different kinds of waffle rugs, knick-knack shelves, and many pretty lamps.

The pupils went to the shop every Tuesday to work on their projects. All of the girls have learned ways of judging quality and craftsmanship by making small things for their homes.

JUNIOR GIRLS' SHOP CLUB

Nineteen junior high girls went merrily to the shop every Thursday. The purpose of the Girls' Shop Club was to familiarize the pupils with the different tools and machinery of the shop. All of the students made very beautiful knick-knack shelves as their projects. This club taught the girls how to be helpers around the house.

SENIOR SPORTS CLUB

Twenty-five boys from grades ten through twelve participated in Mr. Bower's Senior Sports Club.

During bad weather the boys met every two weeks due to the lack of indoor facilities. Meeting in the gym, the boys enjoyed such sports as basketball, badminton, wrestling, volleyball, and tumbling.

Under favorable conditions the club met every week and played baseball, soccer, softball, and football.

This period was for relaxation and for developing those who did not participate in competitive sports.

Sportsmanship and good character were the goals of this club.

JUNIOR SPORTS CLUB

Thirty boys from grades seven to nine were enrolled in Mr. Golazeski's Junior Sports Club.

The group met alternate Thursdays with the senior high club.

During bad weather the boys enjoyed basketball, tumbling, wrestling, and volleyball in the gymnasium.

Soccer, football, and softball comprised the outdoor sports.

The club was divided into teams, according to ability for the various games.

No junior high school team member could join the organization, as it was a popular club, formed mainly for recreation; it also served as a training ground for those interested in junior high sports.

Wrestling and softball proved to be the favorite sports of the group.

DRILL TEAM - SAFETY PATROL

Our hats should surely go off to a group of girls who were not afraid to stand in the cold weather to help direct traffic. These twenty girls had different duties each month; they were posted at various points in the immediate vicinity of the school and on the campus.

The group met once a week in activity period and drilled every Thursday night.

Saturday afternoons, movies were shown in the school auditorium with a full house every time.

A Valentines Dance, Express Your Desire, was held in the gym on February 14. Music was furnished by The Kings Men from Pottstown. A Dungaree Hop was also planned.

SENIOR BOYS' CHEF CLUB

Sixteen senior high boys made up the club which met every Tuesday in the cooking room of the cottage.

The main objective of the boys' club was to learn how to prepare foods,—or was it?

The boys were put into groups of about four and each group was situated at a table. Each group worked together making cookies, cakes, and other pastries.

The advisor of the group was Miss Dorothy Kennally.

JUNIOR BOYS' CHEF CLUB

The Junior Boys' Chef Club met every other Thursday, alternating with the F.H.A.

There were sixteen junior high boys in the club. Many kinds of cookies and cakes were made during the year. Due to the short time they had in activity period, they could not make pies or other dishes which required a long amount of time.

Through the able assistance of Miss Dorothy Kennally, the boys had a fine time and learned how to prepare many foods.

JUNIOR HIGH BOYS' CHORUS

Strains of "On The Road To Mandaley," "Erie Canal," and other old time favorites came floating from the auditorium every Tuesday afternoon through out the year.

The forty members of the Junior High Songsters met in the weekly activity periods to work on voice parts and to sing popular and college songs, and old familiar music.

Taking part in the annual Christmas program was the most important activity of the year.

Eleanor Bucci, a sophomore, was the chorus accompanist.

JUNIOR RED CROSS CLUB

Listed among the activities of the Junior Red Cross were the making of place mats to be sent to Children's wards in hospitals across the country and the decoration of memo pads by painting and use of pictures from magazines.

Following the regular Tuesday afternoon business meetings, the girls had a social time, consisting of games and discussions.

At Easter time, the twenty-two members, including seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students, had a specially planned program at this meeting.

First Row: Ruth Ann Wolf, Beverly Sellers, June Schwarger, Holly Kephart, Carol Lee Bishop, Delores Adamire, Sandra Fox.

HARMONAIRES

President .....	LEON CONSTANZER
Secretary .....	PEGGY JONES
Treasurer .....	JOAN LANDIS
Librarian .....	SIMON MANSON
Pianist .....	LAURA ZIEGLER

A busy schedule was met by the Harmonaires this year. These forty voices, selected from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, were heard singing in several churches of the surrounding area, the school Christmas program, Baccalaureate and Commencement, assembly, P.T.A., Coatesville Veteran's Hospital, the Valley Forge Chapel, and some of the organizations in near-by towns.

Since Hatfield exchanged assembly programs with Souderton, Lansdale, Hatboro, and Pottstown High Schools, the Harmonaires presented programs at these various places.

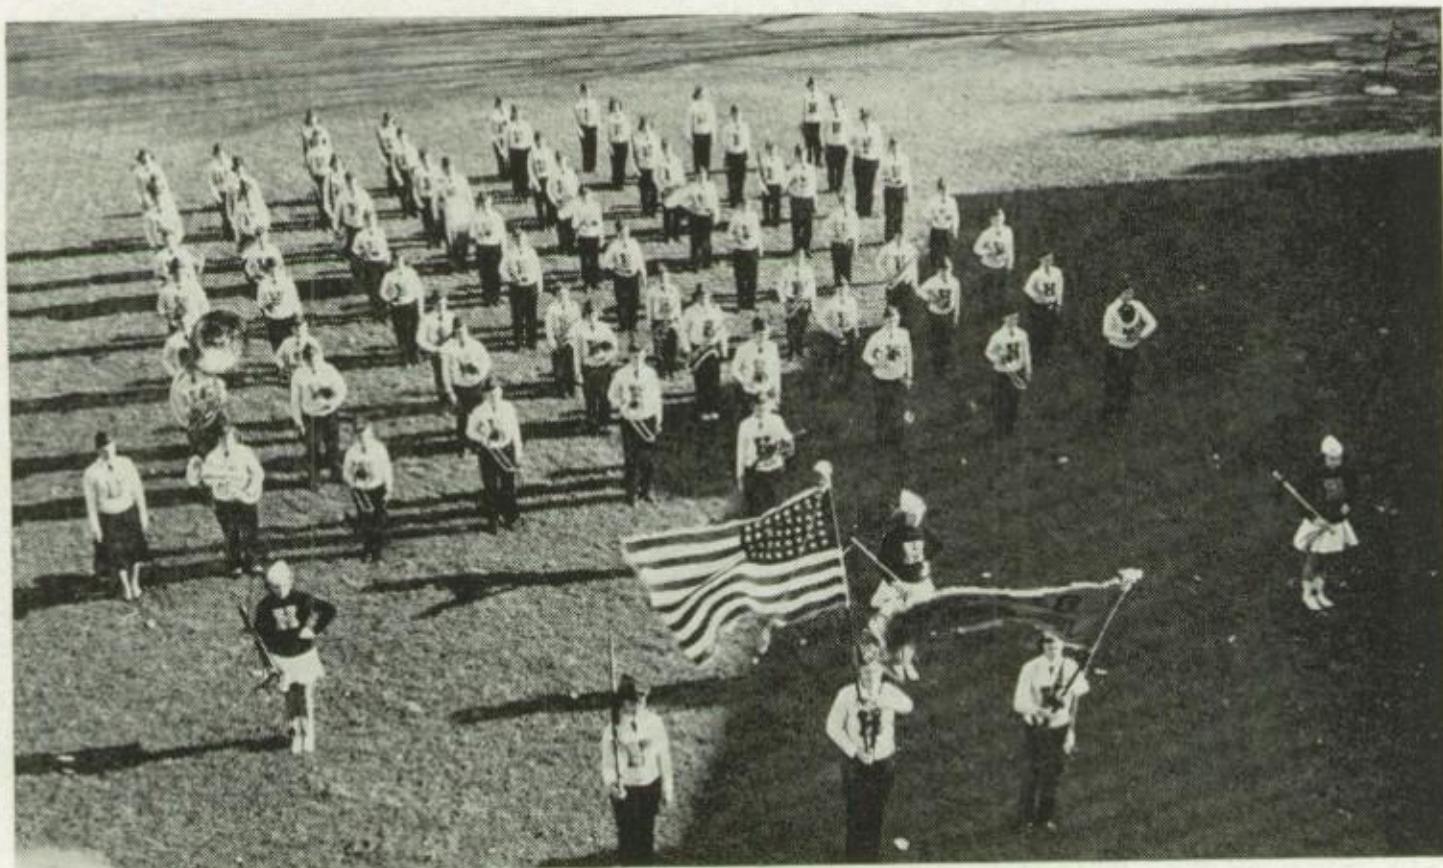

Black gowns with orange stoles were purchased by the group for each member.

The most important and colorful event of the year was the annual Spring Concert, in which the girls wore evening gowns of pastel shades and the boys wore dark suits.

Alfred Kober, Ronald Landis, Leon Constanzer, and Bill Rheiner, comprising the boys' quartet, sang at several performances.

Representing the Hatfield High School at Southeastern District Chorus in Abington High School were Joan Landis, Laura Ziegler, Leon Constanzer, and Bill Rheiner.

HATFIELD HIGH SCHOOL BAND

BAND MEMBERS: Shirley Constanzer, Paul Fickert, Charles Kern, Luther Moyer, Joanne Pinkerton, Robert Walker, David Bell, David Chapman, Walter Diehl, Lamar Heckler, Earl Insweiler, Stanley Keeley, Alfred Kleiner, Richard Lentz, Janet Schlosser, Donald Stevens, Norman Troxel, Richard Harris, David Keeley, Robert Kaler, William Kephart, Joan Daly, Beverly DeTurk, Adele Detweiler, Bob Green, Audrey Maurer, Gerry Moyer, Richard Bowen, Patsy DeCarme, Judy Emmerick, Phyllis Fox, Tommy Price, Robert Snyder, Carol Lee Bishop, Laurel Detweiler, Dennis Henning, Jackie Machete, Donald Nyce, Grace Kober, Edward Beidler, Jane Daly, Jimmy Freund, Bill Harris, Bobby Mascaro, Lois Pinkerton, Dennis Reube, Raymond Snyder, Merrilyn Benner, Gladys Delp, Patsy Kalbach, Ruth Ann Price, Gloria Souder, Alfred Kober, Royden Nyce, Donald Schlosser, Reid Fretz, Phillip Kopp, Clarence Watts, Lucy Clemens, Nancy Price, Nancy Mascaro, Peggy Jones, Stanley Jones, Dennis Schlosser, Ralph Schwartz, Gray Farley, David Fretz, Jesse Lewis, Leigh Rittenhouse, Lonnie Schwartz, Charles Seiger.

Under the enthusiastic direction of Miss Elma Stine, the recently organized band started its second year.

A committee of the band officers with Mr. Cowan and Miss Stine started the year off right with the selection of black slacks, white sweaters with orange H's, and pert black hats for the bands complete uniform. With the help of the head majorette, Annette Royer, they also selected white boots, short white skirts, black turtleneck sweaters with the orange H, and white overseas caps for the majorettes.

To try their skill at winning prizes, the first opportunity was the Pennsbury Halloween Parade. It was a great thrill to Miss Stine and the band members when an announcement was made to the band that they had placed third in their first try at marching.

Leading the Hatfield Halloween Parade, our band came through with flying colors, bagging the first prize. A routine was worked out for the majorettes by Miss Stine, and this was executed in front of the judges stand.

Next, feeling quite confident, the Hatfield Band marched through Quakertown, again taking first prize in the category of high school bands.

The Mardi Gras gave much stiff competition to the band and although they gave their best, only a small sum of consolation money was received.

Coming back to the band's own school activities, they played in the beginning and closing of a number of assemblies. A program was given to the Band Boosters Association; they also rendered a few numbers at two Parent-Teachers Association meetings.

To wind up their activities they took part in the annual Spring Concert given in April and May.

CHEERLEADERS

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

The complete Christmas program was again sacred this year.

Grades one through six opened the performance with the annual Christmas pageant in charge of Mrs. Kathryn Wagner, the elementary school music advisor.

Directing the second half of the program was the high school music advisor, Miss Elma Stine. The music was furnished by the ninth and tenth grade Girls' Chorus, the junior high school Boys' Chorus, and the Harmonaires.

To begin this part, following the processional, the three groups combined to sing, "Come Rise Up Early in the Morning" by Kountz. Then each chorus rendered several selections.

As in the preceding year, the Harmonaires stood—wearing white, silver-trimmed bertha collars, and carrying white boughs with blue lights—in the form of a Christmas tree in the center front of the auditorium, with the other two choruses on either side.

Concluding the program, the entire ensemble blended their voices in the grand "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah". This performance was given to the elementary school, the high school, and the Parent-Teacher's Association.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

One hundred percent membership was achieved this year in the high school athletic association. The seniors were the first class to reach the total mark, but they were closely followed by the other classes.

Tickets were sold at the basketball games by the treasurer and his assistant. In order to boost the treasury sodas were sold at the games.

Captain ..... DAVID DERR
Co-Captain ..... CONNIE MACK
Coach ..... MR. GERALD BOWER

The varsity boys' soccer team ended its season with second place this year.

Rumors were that in this season there would be football to take the place of soccer; but, of course, the rumor did not come true.

There were several members lost through graduation. They were Dave Derr, Connie Mack, Roland Moyer, Russ Gerhart, Fred Laws, John Miller, Al Shanks, Bill Rheiner, and Lloy Hilgner. Hatfield was again represented in the All-Star game against the champs, North Wales.

Injuries were suffered by team members, Dave Derr and Charles Ott; however, they did not prove too serious.

For the third consecutive season the girls' varsity hockey team won the Tri-County League Hockey Championship.

The sticksters won four out of six games and tied two. They pushed through seventeen goals and allowed six goals against them.

Lucy Clemens, a sophomore, headed the team with seven points, Gladys Delp, a sophomore, came right behind with six points.

Lost from the team next year will be Lorraine Leidy, Jane Moyer, Joan Moyer, Janet Potts, Beverly Roth, Peg Kriebel and Mgr. Joan Dietrich.

With talent like Clemens, Delp, Mascaro, Maurer and Weyer, the team should win again next year.

Ouch! Crash! And another goal is gained by the junior high soccer champions.

During the year goal after goal piled in as the juniors fought for the championship. There was a lot of huffing and puffing and many emotional upsets. But the juniors won again and again. Under the management of Henry Ford and the coaching of Mr. Golazeski, the juniors won the league championship.

VARSITY BOYS' BASKETBALL

Left to Right, First Row: Gerald Moyer, Charles Seiger, Melvin Saylor, Roland Moyer, Alfred Kober, Jack Schwartz.

Second Row: Jon Marx, Russell Snyder, Harry Wurster, Fred Laws, Connie Mack, Bill Rheiner, Frank Javorka, Ronald Landis, Mr. Gerald Bower.

The Hatfield boys' varsity basketball team has completed what was the most successful basketball campaign in the past three seasons.

Although they finished league competition with a record of six victories and eight defeats, the Falcons showed great improvement, for in the previous two seasons the Hatters failed to win a league contest.

Scoring honors went to two seniors, Connie Mack and Fred Laws, who tallied 139 and 136 points, respectively. Both boys averaged double figures throughout the season. The remainder of the points went to Bill Rheiner with 78, Roland Moyer with 68, Harry Wurster with 58, and Mel Saylor with 49 counters.

The Hatters provided many thrills for the home town fans by defeating the traditional rival North Wales in their both encounters. The first, and easy 68 to 39 victory, was perhaps the Falcon's best offensive thrust of the season. The second game was a different story. The Hatters, behind at one time by 17 points, pulled the game out of the bag in the final minute with a free throw by Harry Wurster, a sophomore center.

With all due consideration, the team played good basketball; they never gave up and always managed to hustle—even in a losing cause.

SENIOR HIGH GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Coach .....	MRS. GLYNN STOVER
Captain .....	LORRAINE LEIDY
Manager .....	DOLORES HAGER
Assistant Manager .....	PEG KRIEBEL

The second championship of 1952-53 season was conquered, when the Hatter maids won the Tri-County League Basketball Championship. The champs record included eleven wins and one loss.

High scoring honors went to Jane Moyer with 138 points, fourteen more than her identical twin sister Joan. Janet Potts was second highest with 125 points.

Captain Lorraine Leidy, Joan Moyer, Jane Moyer, and Janet Potts will be lost through graduation; but ready to take their place are the Juniors—Jackie Michener, Grace Kober, Shirley Kratz, Jeanette Weyer, Margaret Armitage, Esther Brinker, and Gail Keck. Sophomores who will be back are Lucy Clemens, Janet Maurer, Gladys Delp, Nancy Mascaro, Rosemary Landis, and Florence Armitage.

JUNIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Left to Right, First Row: Lonny Schwartz, Charles Danenhower, Robert Javorka, Jack Gray, David Fretz, Russell Kriebel, Sylvester Benedette, Mr. Stanley Golazeski.

Second Row: Henry Ford, Robert Schultz, Richard Bowen, William Harris, James Danenhower, Clarence Watts, Richard Harris, Jesse Lewis.

The junior high net nippers won a total of nine games and lost six.

Jack Gray, a freshman, was high scorer with a total of 117. Charles Danenhower and David Fretz, also freshmen, were runners-up with 90 points a piece. Dennis Schlosser, who is a ninth grade student, was also among the high scorers with 46 points.

Through the co-operation of each boy on the court and the smart thinking of the two captains, Robert Javorka and Dave Fretz, the boys had a good season.

Thanks to Mr. Golazeski for the number of hours spent after school to coach these boys.

Thanks from the team to the manager, Henry Ford, who was so faithful in doing his many tasks.

JUNIOR GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Left to Right, First Row: Miss Jean Berringer, Arlene Fluck, Mary Mains, Betty Lou Stoneback, Nancy Price, Gladys Rosenberger, Eileen Clemmer, Merrillyn Benner, Nancy Reube, Eleanor Ziegler.

Second Row: Patsy Hedrick, Joan Mains, Sandra Price, Mary Rosenberger, Marian Lindsay, Adele Detweiler, Patsy Cole, Amber Arinsburg, Beverly DeTurk, Gay Tebeau.

Swish! Another basket, the buzzer, and the junior girls' basketball team wins another game.

With Miss Jean Berringer playing the part as a good coach and with an exceptionally skilled basketball squad, these girls competed against four other schools and came out the undefeated champions.

In the beginning of the basketball season a meeting was called for a junior high basketball team. Forty girls tried out and twelve were chosen. The regular schedule was followed but each of the schools competed against each other twice.

We're quite sure, with girls like Eleanor Ziegler, Gladys Rosenberger, and Merrillyn Benner playing the game, some more championships will be claimed for Hatfield's honor.

Second Row: Mr. Ronald Richards, Samuel Loeffler, Lee Snyder, Frank Javorka, Charles Seiger, Gerald Moyer.

This season there were only fifteen candidates who reported for baseball. There were three lettermen, Bill Rheiner, Connie Mack, and Roland Moyer. Despite the shortage of men the team was raring to go.

Practices were held after school in preparation for the schedule of games listed below. Good luck to the team!

JUNIOR BASEBALL TEAM

The junior high baseball squad, composed of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys, was cut down to a smaller group—having fewer players—with which to work than in previous years. The team had daily after school practices at which the boys were trained for the difficult schedule which lay before them.
